NOTICE TO MEMBERS

Article IV

Section 7: Any member becoming three (3) months in arrears for the nonpayment of dues or assessments shall be delinquent and shall forfeit voice and vote, unless officially exonerated, and any member becoming six (6) months in arrears for the nonpayment of dues or assessments shall be suspended from membership.

Section 7b: Any person dropped for the nonpayment of dues shall join as a new member and pay the fees required by the local to which he applies for membership. In addition, such person shall pay the six-months' dues and all assessments, and the local union collecting same shall pay the International and District Council per capita tax. The balance of money collected shall be the property of the Local Union reinstating a member, and collection shall be made at the rate of dues and assessments of such Local Union, but in reinstating members of other Local Unions, the affected Local Union shall be officially notified of the reinstatement and transfer of the member.

Section 7c: All members going to work under the jurisdiction of another Local Union than the one in which they hold membership shall be automatically transferred to such new Local Union. Such members shall be required to report to the new Local Union within a period of ten (10) days or be subject to the payment of a fine of not less than five dollars ($5.00), even though their dues may be paid up currently or in advance. Members from operations on strike or where a lockout exists shall not be transferred from their home Local Unions during the period such strike or lockout exists, but shall be required to report to the new Local Union or be subject to payment of the fine mentioned herein. Dues collected from such members, together with their dues books, shall be forwarded to their home Local Unions which, in turn, shall receipt for such dues, affix dues stamps, and return said dues books to the Local Union which collected the dues for transmittal to the individual by affected members. Collections from such members shall be at the rate of dues of their home Local Unions. In all other cases the Local Unions collecting dues from members being transferred in shall collect same at its own rate of dues and shall retain all monies thus collected; however, official notification of transfers must be made to the members' home Local Union in all cases. Any Local Union neglecting to follow through on this latter provision shall be subject to a five dollar ($5.00) fine, said fine to revert to the home Local Union.

Section 22c: Members leaving the industry for an anticipated period of six months or longer shall, upon application, be granted a retirement card. This card shall entitle the holder to exemption from the payment of all dues and assessments for the period of absence, provided such absence is for a period of six months or longer, and to reinstatement in the Union without payment of initiation fee, subject to the conditions enumerated hereafter. Acceptance of a retirement card by any member shall constitute agreement that upon being re-employed in the industry under the jurisdiction of any Local Union such member shall automatically be reinstated to membership in the Local Union involved and subject to all laws, rules and regulations of the Union. Retirement cards shall be issued free of charge, but the member receiving same must have paid all dues and assessments up to and including the current month. A retirement card in triplicate form shall be printed by the International Union to be furnished the Local Union at cost. The original of the triplicate form shall be given the member, one copy shall be retained by the Local Union and the other copy shall be sent to the District Office.

A member holding a retirement card, when re-entering the industry must present the card to the Local Union having jurisdiction within ten (10) days or be subject to the payment of a fine of not less than the current initiation fee of the Local Union. In cases of absences from the industry for a period of less than six (6) months, a member holding a retirement card must pay all dues and assessments accrued during the period of such absence including dues for the current month. In all other cases the current month's dues must be paid including dues for the period beginning with the date of re-employment in the industry. All financial obligations enumerated in this paragraph must be cleared up before such a member will be considered in good standing and all such obligations shall be considered as being due the Local Union in which the member is reinstated.
